

The MMCRU Insider

Mid Sioux Baskets

By MMCRU Communications

The MMCRU High School has been working together to fill baskets of different needs and useful products to donate to Mid Sioux Opportunity. This organization provides food and other necessities to families in need. Students are given a list of different products to fill their baskets with. An MMCRU teacher stated, "These baskets are very nice, they bring that warm Christmas feeling." Each year the high school participated in filling these baskets for donations.

MMCRU Archery

By MMCRU Communications

The MMCRU Royals' Archery practice began this week. They will have practice every day during the school week except for Wednesday. On Monday the team moved all of their supplies to the Sawyer Center. The meets for this sport will be held on Saturdays. The MMCRU Archery Team consists of 17 archers with 2 new archers this year.

Royals Over Host Wolves

by Mari Radtke

MMCRU scoring in the first half of the Varsity Boys' basketball game played Tuesday December 2 at Lake Park was endless. The Royals put 20 points on the board in the first quarter agains Harris-Lake Park's 11. They followed that up with a 41-7 quarter, taking a 61-18 halftime score to the break.

H-LP doubled down on their effort in the second half, outscoring their guests in each period. It was a valiant effort. The game still tilted to the Royals, 69-38.

No stats are available for Harris-Lake Park.

Royals' senior Kamden Bork topped the scoreboard with 19 points, hitting 8 of 13 field goal attempts and 1/2 3-point efforts. Senior Wyatt Alesch scored 15 points hitting 6/10 field goals and draining 3 out of 4 3-point attempts. Senior Brandon Dreckman's stats are mismatched. He scored 13 but hit 4/5 field goals and 3 of 4 3-point attempts, topped with 2 of 3 free throws.

Board grabbed 6 boards putting 2 of them back up. He stole 6. Senior Mark Schnepp grabbed 3 rebounds, 2 offensive and 2 steals. Senior Michael Schmillen rebounded 3 and stole 2.

Day in the Life - Freshman

By MMCRU Communications

Owen Erickson is a freshman at MMCRU High School. The day in the life of Erickson's morning consists of waking up, taking a shower, and brushing his teeth to get ready for his school day. He also drinks an energy drink, right before leaving for school. During school, Erickson goes through each of his classes, periods 1-8 and Royal Time. He eats his lunch at school. Following school, Erickson goes to basketball practice, and then heads home for his evening routine. This consists of driving home, sometimes stopping at Casey's, and then eating dinner, doing homework, playing video games, and going to bed. Some of Erickson's hobbies include farming, playing basketball, and participating in FFA.

Hawk Visit was a Royal Win

The MMCRU Royals dominated play at Marcus Friday December 5. Quarter scores are 19-4, 23-15, 20-16 and 19-12. Game final is 81-47.

HMS has not stats available at press time.

Senior Wyatt Alesch led scoring with 17 points. Kamden Bork scored 15. Senior Eli Schlenger scored 12 including 2 of 4 3-point attempts.

Schlenger led rebounds with 6, 2 were offensive boards. Junior Josh Peterson also grabbed 6. Half were for a second chance. He also booked a blocked shot. Bork was strong under the baskets, too. He grabbed 4 rebounds with 2 offensive. Defensively he marked a blocked shot and 8 steals.

Royals Fall in Opener

by Mari Radtke

The Royals faced a difficult season opener at Lake Park on Tuesday December 2 where they faced the Harris-Lake Park Wolves in basketball action. The girls fell behind in the opening stanza 5-17. They fell behind a little more before the half going to break facing a scoreboard saying 15-29.

The Royals didn't fare much better in the second half, ending the game at 34-50.

H-LP leading scorers were Cora Niemeier, junior with 11 points; Peyton Reverts, junior with 10 point and senior Lilli Gunderson with 8 points.

No Royals stats are available at press time.